Lizzie Dragon Joins WJ Interests, LLC

Sugar Land, TX - Lizzie Dragon has been named Client Relations Director of WJ Interests, LLC, a financial planning and asset management firm.

Formed in 1995, WJ Interests, LLC provides fee only comprehensive financial planning, securities research and portfolio management services to individuals and companies. With a commitment to personal service, WJ Interests creates and implements unique, individual financial plans to achieve clients' personal and financial goals.

"We are tremendously excited to have Lizzie join our team. She will add value to our firm because of her relationship building and marketing skills," says Jared Jameson, Vice President.

Prior to joining WJ Interests, Dragon was formerly Director of Development and Public Relations for the Fort Bend County Women's Center. She was most noted for her work directing the $2.2 Million Putting the Pieces Together Capital Campaign, which resulted in a new shelter for women and children who are survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Dragon earned a B.A. in Communication from Tulane University. She is a member of the Sugar Land Rotary Club and volunteers for the Fort Bend County Women's Center, Red Cross, Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae Assn. and Southminster School.

She and her husband , Todd, and their two children live in Missouri City.
