WJ Interests, LLC, named Top Advisor by Financial Advisor, Wealth Management magazines

SUGAR LAND, TX (October 30, 2008) – WJ Interests, LLC, a financial planning and investment management firm in Sugar Land, has been ranked among the top financial planning firms in the United States by both Financial Advisor and Wealth Management magazines.

“We have enjoyed being a Wealth Management ‘top dog’ every year since 2003, when the magazine first created the list,” said Jared Jameson, vice president and chief investment officer for WJ Interests. This is the first year Financial Advisor magazine has published a ranking.

Both lists are arranged according to each firm’s assets under management, or AUM. Wealth Manager ranks firms according to its average AUM per client at the end of previous calendar year. For 2007, WJ Interests ranked #305 with an average of $1,180,870 per client. Financial Advisor uses each firm’s gross AUM at the end of the previous calendar year – WJ Interests was ranked #294 with $132.30 million AUM at the end of 2007.

“No matter where we are on the list, it’s great to see our name included with what are considered to be the best firms in the country,” Jameson said.
